

Defining two user roles students and teachers

1. Student: Students have the ability to take exams. They can access the exams created by the teachers, answer questions, and submit their responses.
2. Teacher: Teachers have the ability to create and manage exams. They can create new exams, add questions to them, set up grading criteria, and manage the overall examination process.